INTRODUCTION

The Board of Ordained Ministry of the South Georgia Annual Conference has included in this handbook helpful information for clergy members of the Annual Conference as they plan and participate in continuing education.

Each clergy is responsible for his/her own continuing education progress. This handbook acts only to establish guidelines and standards to assist in that process.

To the degree that the enclosed information is helpful, the Board of Ordained Ministry hopes clergy members of the South Georgia Annual Conference will make use of this material. This handbook is intended to assist each clergy member of the Annual Conference in developing his/her own effective continuing education program.
