RETREAT LEADERS:

REV. AIMEE BAXTER is an ordained United Methodist Deacon serving St. Thomas Episcopal Church and the South Ga. Conference Disaster Response Ministry. She is Married to Rev. Shannon Baxter, also a UM Deacon, and has three children: Grant, 15; Isabel, 10; and Asa, 4. She loves spending time with her family, all things Auburn and Duke basketball!

REV. DEVON GODDARD SMYTH is the Executive Director of the Williams S. Davies Shelters, Inc. in Rome, Ga. She is married to David, and they are parents of Katie Wimberly, 20, and Bennett, 13. A graduate of both Warren Wilson College & Duke Divinity School, she feels like North Carolina is home.

REV. STACY HARWELL-DYE serves on loan to the TN Annual Conference as Pastor of Mission and Outreach at West End UMC in Nashville, TN. She is married to Jonathan Harwell-Dye and they have a Shetland sheepdog. Stacey loves figuring out how churches can be the best neighbors possible in their communities.

REV. KATHY ISRAEL MCLEOD is married to Rev. Marty McLeod and has one daughter, Jessica. Ordained Elder in 2006, Kathy currently serves Hand Memorial and Bethany UMC in Mitchell County.

TEEN WOMEN'S RETREAT LEADER:

Ivy Kratzer serves as Director of Children’s Ministries and Director of Youth Ministries at Waycross First United Methodist Church. Ivy has enjoyed leading church camps, Bible studies, mission projects, and retreats with the children and youth of the Waycross community for many years.

Ivy has been in an active UMW circle for 10 years. After finding United Methodist Women so beneficial and meaningful in her life, she organized the Waycross FUMC Teen circle. This teen circle has been very active in raising funds for Vashti, Children’s Home, UMCOR, and many other church and community endeavors.

A native of Waycross, Ivy is currently working on a degree in Teacher Education with emphasis in Early Childhood. She is the mother of a teenage daughter, Katie, and two fur babies who occupy all of what little spare time she has.
