

Map 1- Current Reality

Before you start to move toward your desired destination, you must know where you are. How do you spend your time as a congregation? Estimate the % of the time you spend on each of the following areas and create a pie chart to represent your current reality. Repeat the exercise on the next page marking the % of resources (equipment, finances, facilities) you spend on each of the following areas. Then reflect on your reality using the questions that follow.

Drawing Conclusions:

1. What did you learn from this data?
2. How would others within the congregation estimate your percentages?
3. What is the relationship between your investment of time & resources and the effectiveness of your ministry areas?
4. What could you change in order to be more effective in accomplishing your mission?
5. What is important for you to retain in order to experience continued success?
