

South Georgia Conference BMCR joins together at Pathways

Article by Rev. Earnestine Campbell, The Link, Sept. 10, 2019

Twenty-five members of the South Georgia Conference BMCR (Black Methodists for Church Renewal) joined together on Saturday, August 24, during the lunch hour at the Pathways training event in Warner Robins. Their gathering focused on bringing awareness to the BMCR vision, mission, and purpose as well as developing active participation and effective strategic planning for the Black Church. A revised BMCR pamphlet was shared (click here to view). There was also a celebration of the elections of the recent Black female UMC Bishops. Micheal Powell, chair of the group, shared that they are enthusiastic and confident that the caucus is growing to the next level. “We are committed to fulfilling the BMCR charge of a unified church, uplifting prophetic and spiritual leaders for the advocacy of Black people, rebuilding God's Church as a community of faith, declaring the traditions and stories of the Bible and Black culture, reclaiming the black community and liberating all people from racism and injustice everywhere,” said Powell. “We look forward to continuing membership growth and impact.” For further information, contact Micheal Powell at mikepowelltherealtor@gmail.com or 706-464-4066.
